The following are provided as potential examples of reasons to support soliciting from a single source. If these items do not apply, the check-a-blocks may be deleted from the document. The current chaplain has performed services for the requirement for over 10 years and has formed relational connections. A change of personnel could cause undue distress and would be detrimental to the success of the program. Additionally, historically no other contractors have shown interest in requirement due to the nature of working with prisoners, the requirement to be in the Chesapeake area, and the requirement to hold a Secret clearance.

☐ A patent, copyright or proprietary data limits competition.

☐ These are "direct replacement" parts/components for existing equipment.
