1. Notice of Intent

The Department of Veterans Affairs (VA), National Cemetery Administration (NCA), intends to issue a solicitation for the Danville National Cemetery National Shrine Project. This procurement will be set aside 100% for SDVOSB firms verified under SBA's VetCert program at the time of offer and award.

This notice is not a request for proposals. No proposals or questions will be accepted in response to this notice. A formal solicitation will be issued at a later date on SAM.gov.

2. Project Overview (Summary of Work)

The Contractor gaining award must provide all personnel, management, supplies, transportation, equipment and supervision necessary to perform and complete all work to provide complete section renovation for the cemetery sections indicated that includes, but not limited to: site surveying; preparing grading plans and headstone realignment plans; vegetation removal, grading and drainage, excavation and backfill; headstone identification/tagging; headstone handling; flat marker geogrid support system; headstone re-installation; headstone cleaning; turf renovation; and site restoration work. Note: "Headstone" includes both upright headstones and flat markers.

3. Anticipated Period of Performance

The anticipated period of performance is 365 calendar days from Notice to Proceed. Turf renovation work is restricted to seasonal windows:

- Spring: April 15 – June 30
- Fall: August 15 – October 15

Turf must be fully established prior to winter.

4. Procurement Information

The VA anticipates releasing a Firm-Fixed-Price solicitation. The Government is currently considering NAICS 561730 (Landscaping Services) or 238990 (All Other Specialty Trade Contractors). The final NAICS will be announced in the solicitation.

5. Place of Performance and On-Site Constraints

Work will occur at Danville National Cemetery, Danville, Illinois. Contractors will be required to:

Presolicitation Notice
