

Request for Information (RFI)Date Issued: 04/03/2026*TITLE: Federal Occupational Health (FOH) Private Provider Network (FOHNet)*Introduction

This is a request for information (RFI) notice. This RFI is NOT a solicitation for proposals, proposal abstracts, or quotations. The purpose of this RFI is to obtain knowledge and information on potential vendor interest and capability for project planning purposes.

Project Description:

The purpose of this requirement will be to acquire professional occupational health services through a nationwide Private Provider Network (PPN) to support Program Support Center (PSC), Federal Occupational Health (FOH) under the Department of Health and Human Services (HHS). The nationwide PPN includes four regions. Services will be performed in the 50 United States plus; Guam, Northern Mariana Islands, American Samoa, Puerto Rico and Virgin Islands. The requirement provides integrated Occupational Health and Safety (OHS) services throughout the Federal Government.

The work performed will require the Contractor to maintain a Contractor-Owned Contractor-Operated, Private Provider Network Client Portal (COCO PPN-CP) in the designated FOHNet Region and is responsible for performing a full-range of occupational health services. The Contractor will maintain an online, secured web-base portal, also referred to as a COCO PPN-CP, to manage customer/patient service and records. The Contractor will obtain certification and maintain an HHS Authorization To Operate (ATO) certification and permanently store government/medical records.

FOH Background:

FOH is a component of the PSC that is part of the HHS. Their mission is to provide various occupational health and related health services to Federal employees across numerous Federal agencies to promote and maintain the physical and mental fitness of the Federal workforce.

FOH is primarily composed of Service Areas that specialize in the delivery of health and health related services to customer agencies. FOH and customer Federal agencies, utilize Inter-Agency Agreement's (IAAs) to manage business relations and coordinate the delivery of health-related services and costs associated with receiving those services. FOH has acquired occupation health support services in the Clinical regions for more than twenty (20) years. This requirement is recurring and ongoing in order for FOH to continue providing service to Federal Agencies.

Purpose and Objectives:

FOH is conducting market research to prepare for the continued requirement of providing Private Provider Network.

The purpose of the contract will be to acquire professional occupational health services through a nationwide PPN to support FOH. The contractor will manage referrals through COCO PPN-CP.

Key challenges specific to the contract the Contractor shall be aware of include:

1. Management and oversight of permanent medical records (paper and electronic) to maintain confidentiality and appropriate medical record keeping.
2. Maintaining communications with PPN providers regarding billing for FOH services to prevent improper billing practices or misdirected bills.
3. Maintaining a PPN with providers in requested service areas that offer the services required of FOH customers.
4. Scheduling and completing services within the defined timeframe(s)
5. Submitting complete reports that do not contain missing items within the defined timeframe(s).
6. Maintaining a PPN with personnel that are trained to meet the requirements of FOH policies and identified standards.
7. Receiving all referrals through COCO PPN-CP System and/or agreed government and contractor system. FOH will place a referral into the Contractor's secure web-based portal for action. It is the Contractor's responsibility to check their secure web-based portal and manage each record in accordance with the timeframes outlined within the PWS. Automatically tracking and recording the date and time of many milestones from record/referral creation to submission back to FOH, is also required.
8. The mobile outreach fee is utilized when the service/work order requirements clearly indicate a mobile outreach service is required.

Project Requirements:

Performance Requirements include, but not limited to:
