

NASA OFFICE OF INSPECTOR GENERAL

OFFICE OF MANAGEMENT

SUITE 8U71, 300 E ST SW
WASHINGTON, D.C. 20546-0001

February 25, 2026

STATEMENT OF WORK

PR: 4200926059

Background

The NASA OIG Office of Investigations is requesting training by The Lincoln Leadership Institute at Gettysburg (LLI) in order to equip all OI GS-14/15 supervisors and program managers with skills directly tied to decision making, communication, and organizational effectiveness.

Scope

This training provides in-depth coverage of the following leadership concepts:

- The Human Side of High Performance
- Positioning for Strategic Advantage
- Transactional and Transformational Leadership:
 - Employee Engagement
 - Importance of Front-Line Supervisors
- Team Building
- Courageous Communication:
 - Accountability
 - Driving Results
 - Managing Conflict
 - Negotiating and Influencing

Requirements

This training will satisfy the Office of Investigations Manual (OIM) Chapter 27 regarding the continued development of supervisors and program managers in their respective areas of responsibility.

Deliverables or Delivery Schedule

Please see scope for details. Training will be held April 22-24, 2026, at Gettysburg, PA.
We are requesting 27 attendees,

Government-Furnished Equipment and Government-Furnished Information:

Travelers may bring their government-furnished laptops with them.

Place of Performance

The Lincoln Leadership Institute at Gettysburg
Gettysburg, PA

Period of Performance

Hotel guestrooms: N/A (included in tuition)

Meeting space: N/A

April 22-24, 2026.