

STATEMENT OF WORK

1. Objective/Requirements

To comply with Boeing Continuing Airworthiness requirements and NASA Procedures, a means of weighing the NASA Langley Boeing 777 aircraft is required.

2. Characteristics, Scope, and Specs

The vendor shall provide an aircraft weighing systems that meets or exceeds the following:

- a) Capable of weighing a Boeing 777 aircraft up to 480,000 lbs
- b) Use of jacks w/ load cells that allow for weighing but can also be used to lift an aircraft axle to facilitate other maintenance (e.g. tire change)
- c) Powered by 120V AC power and/or standard shop air not to exceed 120 psi.

The vendor shall deliver the weighing system to NASA Langley Research Center.

3. Place of Performance

Not applicable. Tool procurement only

4. Period of Performance

Delivery of weighing system no later than July 1, 2026.