A cool water flush or split (half cold and half hot water) shall be utilized initially to prevent setting of certain stains. The laundry shall be soaked as needed to yield the desired stain-free results.

- Sudsing States

The principal washing action is achieved during the detergent sudsing stages. The maximum temperature range should be between 150- and 170-degrees Fahrenheit. This temperature shall maintain for a minimum of 25 minutes to destroy any microorganisms. Bleach must be added after the last sudsing stage at a rate of at least 100ppm.

- Rinsing Rates

High temperature rinsing 165-170 degrees Fahrenheit shall occur following the sudsing stages. A sour shall be added after the final rinse to remove traces of detergent. The sour abruptly reduces the pH from 5.0 and reduction of microorganisms.

- Fluff Drying

Twenty minutes at 165 degrees Fahrenheit

- Ironing and Folding

Ironing shall be performed by a laundry press or a flat-work ironer of approximately 100 pounds. Steam pressure of at least 130 degrees Fahrenheit shall be applied to reduce the number of microorganisms.

- Clean Linen Storage

Final folding and storage should be accomplished in all areas which are separate from dirty laundry, and which have been sanitized with a 50-ppm chlorine solution. Handwashing facilities should be provided in this area. Items stored should be placed in enclosed carts or on covered linen shelves. A sewing and repair operation may be included in this area.

- Re-Performance

The contractor shall re-perform cleaning of items identified as unsatisfactorily cleaned by the Facilities TPOC/COR at no additional cost to the Government. Item(s) shall be re-cleaned and returned to the same exchange point on the next scheduled normal delivery day. The contractor shall ensure item(s) re-cleaned are segregated from other cleaned laundry and identified as "re-cleaned" by a label or tag marked "re-cleaned" and include the date and load number with which the items were originally returned. The number of items shall be deducted from the total weekly number on the day the discrepancy was noted.
