

W50S6X26Q0004 School Advertising Sources Sought Q&A

1. Could we request an extension to the submission deadline?
 - a. Thank you for your interest. At this time, the Government is not providing an extension to the response date. The established deadline is considered a reasonable time for interested parties to provide a capability statement for this market research effort.
2. Could you let us know what the budget is, both for agency services and media? If not, could you let us know what the previous year spends have been on agency services and media?
 - a. This is a Sources Sought Notice for market research purposes only. A budget has not been established for this requirement, and it would be premature to provide cost or budget estimates at this stage. The purpose of this notice is to gather information from industry that will help inform the development of the formal requirement and subsequent acquisition strategy.
3. Could you let us know if you have a local preference or are you open to a Canadian agency that has done similar work with clients across the United States, with some currently being the States of California, Hawaii, Michigan, Virginia, Colorado and Wyoming?
 - a. The Government does not have a local preference for this requirement. As a rule, sources must be registered in the System for Award Management (SAM.gov) to be eligible for a contract award with the U.S. Government. Foreign entities may be eligible to register in SAM and participate in U.S. Government acquisitions, subject to applicable laws and regulations such as the Buy American Act and Trade Agreements Act. All interested and capable sources are encouraged to respond to this notice. To be considered for award, the vendor must demonstrate the ability to advertise within the school listed.
4. Do you have an estimated length of the campaign?
 - a. The Government anticipates the period of performance for a potential future contract to consist of a one-year base period. However, the final structure will be defined in a formal solicitation, should one be issued.
5. Would this process lead to a formal procurement process or a smaller process where only invited bidders are spoken to or ...?
 - a. The results of this Sources Sought notice will be used to determine the appropriate acquisition strategy for a potential future requirement. The Government has not yet made a determination on the specific procurement method. If a competitive solicitation is issued, it will be publicized in accordance with the Federal Acquisition Regulation (FAR) on SAM.gov. This notice does not bind the Government to any specific follow-on action.
