Project Title

IRS - LB&I Data Web Access Subscription

Description of Contemplated Services

The Large Business & International division of IRS is looking for a curated global company database with integrated research tools and a suite of database subscriptions to enable tax audit, analysis, and potential tax assessments in the area of Section 482 transfer pricing and international taxation. The IRS is seeking full access allowing users to easily export all relevant information, save analyses, search sets for future use, and provide future enhancements/updates to the government at no additional cost.

Acquisition Strategy

The Government's acquisition strategy has not yet been determined. This RFI will be posted on multiple platforms, including SAM.gov, NASA SEWP, and GSA. Where appropriate, the Government prefers the use of established Government-wide acquisition vehicles.

Individual responses to firm inquiries will not be provided. Any answers to questions or additional acquisition information will be released through updates to this RFI posting.

RFI Instructions

Firms who are registered on multiple platforms are not required to submit a response on all various platforms. However, firms may provide an additional response on another platform.
