Consolidated Verbiage

INVITED CONTRACTED PERSONNEL OR TECHNICAL REPRESENTATIVE STATUS – JAPAN (APPLICABLE TO U.S. FIRMS ONLY)

Contractor personnel may be classified as members of the “civilian component” under Article I-(b) of the Status of Forces Agreement (SOFA) between Japan and the United States. This classification may be available, upon application, to all of xxxxxx’s personnel who are United States citizens, who do not ordinarily reside in Japan, and whose presence in Japan is necessary for the execution of this contract. This classification may entitle the employee to enter Japan, pursuant to invitational orders, under Article IX of the SOFA. Contracted personnel classified as members of the “civilian component” under this Section shall be subject to all U.S. Forces regulations and directives, which pertain to the “civilian component” in Japan. The following privileges may be extended in accordance with current U.S. Department of Defense Directives, Military Base Interservice Support Agreements and the SOFA.

- (a) Entry into and exit from Japan as “exempt personnel.”
- (b) Duty free import-export into and from Japan.
- (c) U.S. customs exemptions under USFJ PL 4-3.
- (d) U.S. customs exemptions under the Tariff Act of 1930.
- (e) Army Air Force Exchange Service (AAFES), exchange service station, theater, and commissary, subject to Merchandise Control Directives to be administered through the Office of Information.
- (f) Laundry and dry cleaning.
- (g) Military banking facilities.
- (h) Transient billeting facilities on a space-available basis, not to exceed three days and three nights.
- (i) Open mess (club) membership, as determined by each respective club.
- (j) Casualty assistance (mortuary services) on a reimbursable basis, as specified in AFI 34-501.
- (k) Routine medical care to be provided on a reimbursable basis, in accordance with AFI 41-115.
- (l) Dental care is limited to relief of emergencies on a reimbursable basis.
- (m) Employment, emergency leave, and home leave-type travel and transportation for principal U.S. civilian employees and their families will be provided on a reimbursable basis, insofar as such travel and transportation entitlements do not exceed those authorized members of the U.S. civilian component shall not be allowed space available travel privileges aboard Air Mobility Command contract or military aircraft as provided military personnel unless such person travels in a retired military status.

- (n) Department of Defense Dependent Schools (DoDDS) Elementary and Secondary Education facilities on a space available, tuition-paying basis.
- (o) Postal support, as authorized by DOD 4525-8AF Sup 1.
- (p) Local recreation services on a space available basis.
- (q) Armed Forces Recreation Center, on a space available basis.
- (r) Privately owned vehicle (POV) operator's license.
- (s) Registration of privately owned vehicle (POV).
- (t) Purchase of petroleum and oil products.

Whenever the word "reimbursable" is used in the aforementioned logistic support/privileges, it means that the (contract) shall pay the U.S. Government for the services rendered and/or supplies utilized.

The above privileges may be granted to U.S. citizens personnel, so long as they are employed under this contract. However, any violation of these privileges will be cause for immediate withdrawal of such privileges for the principal and/or his/her dependents and could result in total loss of such privileges to all Contracted Employees and Family Members under this contract.

It is agreed that withdrawal of any or all of these privileges for reasons cited in paragraph (c) above, will not affect nor constitute grounds for delay in or non-performance of any portion of any contract between the U.S. Government, nor will such action form the basis for any claim against the U.S. Government, based on the contract or otherwise, nor will such action be considered breach of contract or any portion thereof.

Extended Verbiage

STATUS OF FORCES AGREEMENT

STATUS OF FORCES AGREEMENTS (SOFA) – CONTRACTS TO BE PERFORMED IN JAPAN

The Status of Forces Agreement between the United States and Japan (SOFA) governs the rights and obligations of the United States armed forces in Japan. Unless a contractor is present in Japan solely to perform under a contract with the United States for the sole benefit of the United States armed forces in Japan and is accorded privileges under SOFA Article XIV, it and its employees shall be subject to all the laws and regulations of Japan, including the US-Japan SOFA. Certain contractor employees and their dependents not accorded privileges under SOFA Article XIV may be accorded status under SOFA Article I(b) with potential eligibility for logistic support. Dependents of contractors or of contractor employees who receive SOFA Article XIV status do not receive SOFA status under SOFA Article XIV or SOFA Article I(b) based on their status as dependents. The Contractor shall comply with the instruction of the Contracting Officer concerning the entry of its employees, equipment, and supplies into Japan, and shall comply with all applicable Japanese laws and regulations as well as United States Forces Japan (USFJ) and USFJ component policies and regulations during the performance of this contract.

SOFA ARTICLE XIV STATUS

(a) Awardee may apply for Article XIV status under the United States – Japan Status of Forces Agreement (SOFA).

Offers shall be prepared based on the assumption that SOFA Article XIV status will be granted by Government in consultation with the Government of Japan. If the Government determines that Awardee does not qualify for SOFA

Article XIV status or that SOFA Article XIV status is otherwise inappropriate, an equitable adjustment shall be made to the cost/price and other appropriate terms of the contract. Persons, including corporations organized under the laws of the United States, and their employees who are ordinarily a resident in the United States and whose presence in Japan is solely for the purpose of executing contracts with the United States for the benefit of the United States armed forces may acquire privileged status under SOFA Article XIV. Such contractors and contractor employees are eligible for agency privileges and benefits under the SOFA but otherwise remain subject to the laws and regulations of Japan. Neither SOFA Article XIV nor SOFA Article I(b) status and privileges extend to dependents of SOFA Article XIV contractors or contractor employees.

(b) Procedures.

(1) Formal application for SOFA Article XIV status shall be made to HQ USFJ only after the contract has been awarded and the contractor's place of operation in Japan has been determined.

(2) A contractor seeking SOFA Article XIV status for itself and its employees shall submit the following to the Contracting Officer as part of its offer: (i) Proof that the contractor is a person ordinarily resident in the United States or a corporation organized under the laws of the United States and that its presence in Japan is solely for the purpose of executing contracts with the United States for the benefit of the United States armed forces; and (ii) Proof that the contractor's employees are persons ordinarily a resident in the United States and that their presence in Japan is solely for the purpose of performing work under contracts with the United States for the benefit of the United States armed forces.

(3) The Contracting Officer shall make the initial determination whether the contractor qualifies for SOFA Article XIV status. Upon a determination of qualification, the Contracting Officer shall forward a request for designation through component channels to Commander, United States Forces, Japan, ATTN: USFJ/J5, Unit 5068, APO AP 96328. The request shall include the items requested in subparagraph (b)(2), a full explanation of the necessity of using a United States contractor, and relevant documentation. See USFJ Instruction 64-102 for further details.

(4) HQ USFJ shall make the final determination on the contractor's SOFA Article XIV status upon consultation with the Government of Japan.

(5) Upon receipt of HQ USFJ approval, the Contracting Officer shall issue Letters of Identification indicating SOFA Article XIV status has been granted to the contractor and contractor employees.

(6) Once a contractor has been designated under SOFA Article XIV, it is not necessary that it be redesignated if a follow-on contract is awarded to that contractor; provided the new contract does not involve a material change from the work under which the SOFA Article XIV designation was originally granted and there is no significant delay between completion of the existing contract and initiation of performance under the follow-on contract.

(c) SOFA Article XIV privileges and benefits. In accordance with SOFA Article XIV, paragraphs 3 through 8, upon certification by appropriate United States authorities as to their identity, such persons and their employees shall be accorded the following benefits of the SOFA. Note: Privileges and benefits afforded under SOFA Article XIV do not extend to dependents/family members.

(1) Access to and movement between facilities and areas in use by the United States armed forces and between such facilities and areas and the ports or airports of Japan as provided for in SOFA Article V, paragraph 2;

(2) Entry into Japan and exemption from Japanese laws and regulations on the registration and control of aliens as provided for in SOFA Article IX;

(3) Exemption from customs duties and other such charges on furniture and household goods for private use imported by person when they first arrive to work in Japan, vehicles and parts imported for private use, and reasonable quantities of clothing and household goods for everyday private use which are mailed into Japan through United States military post offices as provided for in SOFA Article XI, paragraph 3;

(4) If authorized by the installation commander or designee, the right to use Navy exchanges, post exchanges, base exchanges, commissaries, messes, social clubs, theaters, newspapers and other nonappropriated fund organizations regulated by United States military authorities as provided for in SOFA Article XV;

(5) The transmission into or outside of Japan of United States dollar or dollar instruments realized as a result of contract performance as provided for in SOFA Article XIX, paragraph 2;

(6) The use of postal facilities as provided for in SOFA Article XXI;

(7) Exemption from the laws and regulations of Japan with respect to terms and conditions of employment except that such exemption shall not apply to the employment of local nationals in Japan;

(8) Exemption from taxes and similar charges of Japan on depreciable assets except houses, held, used, or transferred for the execution of contracts referenced in subparagraph (a);

(9) Exemption from taxation in Japan on the holding, use transfer by death, or transfer to person or agencies entitled to tax exemption under the SOFA, of movable property, tangible or intangible, the presence of which in Japan is due solely to the temporary presence of these persons in Japan, provided such exemption shall not apply to property held for the purpose of investment or the conduct of other business in Japan or to any intangible property registered in Japan. No exemption from taxes payable for the use of roads by private vehicles is provided under SOFA Article XIV;

(10) Exemption from income or corporation taxes of the Government of Japan or any other taxing agency in Japan on any income derived under a contract made in the United States with the Government of the United States in connection with the construction, maintenance or operation of any of the facilities or area covered by the SOFA. The provisions of this paragraph do not exempt such persons from payment of income or corporation taxes on income derived from Japanese sources;

(11) Japan authorities have the right to exercise jurisdiction over SOFA personnel in relation to offenses committed in Japan and punishable by the law of Japan. In those cases in which the Japanese authorities have the primary right to exercise jurisdiction but decide not to do so, the United States shall have the right to exercise such jurisdiction as is conferred on it by the law of the United States.

SOFA ARTICLE I(b) STATUS

(a) SOFA Article I(b) status. Individuals including, but not limited to, technical advisors, consultants, entertainers serving under contracts with the United States for the provision of services in support of U.S. armed forces in Japan, and whose presence is required in Japan to provide such services, may acquire SOFA status in Japan as part of the civilian component under Article I(b) of the SOFA. Note SOFA Article I(b) does not create a lawful status in Japan for any entity other than individuals (e.g., the corporation employing the individual). To qualify for SOFA status under SOFA Article I(b), such individuals must be:

(1) United States nationals,

(2) not ordinarily resident in Japan (or if ordinarily resident in Japan, receive permission from the GOJ to change status following the procedures set out in USFJI 36-2611, Changes of Status by Person in Japan to One of the Categories

(3) present in Japan at the invitation of the United States, and solely for the purpose of executing contracts for the benefit of the United States armed forces (including Foreign Military Sales contracts), and, Authorized by the Status of Forces Agreement),

(4) not contractors, employees of a contractor whose presence in Japan is solely for the purpose of executing contracts within the definition of SOFA Article XIV.

(b) SOFA Article I(b) procedures. Contractor personnel must obtain a Letter of Identification from Contracting Officer to authorize entry into Japan under SOFA Article I(b) and to identify which Article I(b) privileges and benefits will be provided to each employee/dependent. Contractor shall, in writing, identify all contractor personnel and accompanying dependents eligible for SOFA Article I(b) status to the Contracting Officer.

c) SOFA Article 1(b) privileges and benefits. Persons granted authority to enter Japan under SOFA Article I(b) and their dependents (defined as spouse, children under 21, and, if dependent for over half their support upon an individual having SOFA Article I(b) status, parents and children over 21) shall be accorded the following benefits of the SOFA. These privileges are personal to the employee/dependent and to not inure to the employer.

(1) Access to and movement between facilities and areas in use by the United States armed forces and between such facilities and areas and the ports or airports of Japan as provided for in SOFA Article V, paragraph 2;

(2) Entry into Japan and exemption from Japanese laws and regulations on the registration and control of aliens as provided for in SOFA Article IX;

(3) Acceptance as valid by Japan, without a driving test or fee, a U.S. Forces, Japan Operator's Permit for Civilian Vehicle as provided for in SOFA Article X. Issuance of such permit shall be subject to applicable military regulation;

(4) Exemption from customs duties and other such charges on materials, supplies, and equipment which are to be incorporated into articles or facilities used by the United States armed forces furniture, household goods for private use imported by person when they first arrive to work in Japan, vehicles and parts imported for private use, and reasonable quantities of clothing and household goods for everyday private use which are mailed into Japan through United States military post offices as provided for in SOFA Article XI, paragraphs 2 and 3;

(5) Exemption from the laws and regulations of Japan with respect to terms and conditions of employment as provided for in SOFA Article XII, paragraph 7, except that such exemption shall not apply to the employment of local nationals in Japan;

(6) Exemption from Japanese taxes to the Government of Japan or to any other taxing agency in Japan on income received as a result of their service with the United States armed forces as provided for in SOFA Article XIII. The provisions of Article XIII do not exempt such persons from payment of Japanese taxes on income derived from Japanese sources;

(7) If authorized by the installation commander or designee, the right to use Navy exchanges, post exchanges, base exchanges, commissaries, messes, social clubs, theaters, newspapers and other nonappropriated fund organizations regulated by United States military authorities as provided for in SOFA Article XV;

(8) The transmission into or outside of Japan of United States dollar or dollar instruments realized as a result of contract performance as provided for in SOFA Article XIX, paragraph 2;

(9) The use of postal facilities as provided for in SOFA Article XXI;

(10) Exemption from taxation in Japan on the holding, use transfer by death, or transfer to person or agencies entitled to tax exemption under the SOFA, of movable property, tangible or intangible, the presence of which in Japan is due solely to the temporary presence of these persons in Japan, provided such exemption shall not apply to property held for the purpose of investment or the conduct of other business in Japan or to any intangible property registered in Japan.

(11) Japan authorities have the right to exercise jurisdiction over SOFA personnel in relation to offenses committed in Japan and punishable by the law of Japan. In those cases in which the Japanese authorities have the primary right to exercise jurisdiction but decide not to do so, the United States shall have the right to exercise such jurisdiction as is conferred on it by the law of the United States.

SOFA Contract Clause

INVITED CONTRACTOR OR TECHNICAL REPRESENTATIVE STATUS
UNDER U.S. - REPUBLIC OF KOREA (ROK)

Invited Contractor (IC) and Technical Representative (TR) status shall be governed by the U.S.-ROK Status of Forces Agreement (SOFA) as implemented by United States Forces Korea (USFK) Reg 700-19, which can be found under the “publications” tab on the US Forces Korea homepage <http://www.usfk.mil>

(a) Definitions. As used in this clause—

“U.S. – ROK Status of Forces Agreement” (SOFA) means the Mutual Defense Treaty between the Republic of Korea and the U.S. of America, Regarding Facilities and Areas and the Status of U.S. Armed Forces in the Republic of Korea, as amended

“Combatant Commander” means the commander of a unified or specified combatant command established in accordance with 10 U.S.C. 161. In Korea, the Combatant Commander is the Commander, United States Pacific Command.

“United States Forces Korea” (USFK) means the subordinate unified command through which US forces would be sent to the Combined Forces Command fighting components.

“Commander, United States Forces Korea” (COMUSK) means the commander of all U.S. forces present in Korea. In the Republic of Korea, COMUSK also serves as Commander, Combined Forces Command (CDR CFC) and Commander, United Nations Command (CDR UNC).

“USFK, Assistant Chief of Staff, Acquisition Management” (USFK/FKAQ) means the principal staff office to USFK for all acquisition matters and administrator of the U.S.-ROK SOFA as applied to US and Third Country contractors under the Invited Contractor (IC) and Technical Representative (TR) Program (USFK Reg 700-19).

“Responsible Officer (RO)” means a senior DOD employee (such as a military E5 and above or civilian GS-7 and above), appointed by the USFK Sponsoring Agency (SA), who is directly responsible for determining and administering appropriate logistics support for IC/TRs during contract performance in the ROK.

(b) IC or TR status under the SOFA is subject to the written approval of USFK, Assistant Chief of Staff, Acquisition Management (FKAQ), Unit #15237, APO AP 96205-5237.

(c) The contracting officer will coordinate with HQ USFK/FKAQ, IAW FAR 25.8, and USFK Reg 700-19. FKAQ will determine the appropriate contractor status under the SOFA and notify the contracting officer of that determination.

(d) Subject to the above determination, the contractor, including its employees and lawful dependents, may be accorded such privileges and exemptions under conditions and limitations as specified in the SOFA and USFK Reg 700-19. These privileges and exemptions may be furnished during the performance period of the contract, subject to their availability and continued SOFA status. Logistics support privileges are provided on an as-available basis to properly authorized individuals. Some logistics support may be issued as Government Furnished Property or transferred on a reimbursable basis.

(e) The contractor warrants and shall ensure that collectively, and individually, its officials and employees performing under this contract will not perform any contract, service, or other business activity in the ROK, except under U.S. Government contracts and that performance is IAW the SOFA.

(f) The contractor's direct employment of any Korean-National labor for performance of this contract shall be governed by ROK labor law and USFK regulation(s) pertaining to the direct employment and personnel administration of Korean National personnel.

(g) The authorities of the ROK have the right to exercise jurisdiction over invited contractors and technical representatives, including contractor officials, employees and their dependents, for offenses committed in the ROK and punishable by the laws of the ROK. In recognition of the role of such persons in the defense of the ROK, they will be subject to the provisions of Article XXII, SOFA, related Agreed Minutes and Understandings. In those cases in which the authorities of the ROK decide not to exercise jurisdiction, they shall notify the U.S. military authorities as soon as possible. Upon such notification, the military authorities will have the right to exercise jurisdiction as is conferred by the laws of the U.S.

(h) Invited contractors and technical representatives agree to cooperate fully with the USFK Sponsoring Agency (SA) and Responsible Officer (RO) on all matters pertaining to logistics support and theater training requirements. Contractors will provide the assigned SA prompt and accurate reports of changes in employee status as required by USFK Reg 700-19.

(i) Theater Specific Training. Training Requirements for IC/TR personnel shall be conducted in accordance with USFK Reg 350-2 Theater Specific Required Training for all Arriving Personnel and Units Assigned to, Rotating to, or in Temporary Duty Status to USFK. IC/TR personnel shall comply with requirements of USFK Reg 350-2.

(j) Except for contractor air crews flying Air Mobility Command missions, all U.S. contractors performing work on USAF classified contracts will report to the nearest Security Forces Information Security Section for the geographical area where the contract is to be performed to receive information concerning local security requirements.

(k) Invited Contractor and Technical Representative status may be withdrawn by USFK/FKAQ upon:

(1) Completion or termination of the contract.

SOFA Contract Clause

(2) Determination that the contractor or its employees are engaged in business activities in the ROK other than those pertaining to U.S. armed forces.

(3) Determination that the contractor or its employees are engaged in practices in contravention to Korean law or USFK regulations.

(l) It is agreed that the withdrawal of invited contractor or technical representative status, or the withdrawal of, or failure to provide any of the privileges associated therewith by the U.S. and USFK, shall not constitute grounds for excusable delay by the contractor in the performance of the contract and will not justify or excuse the contractor defaulting in the performance of this contract. Furthermore, it is agreed that withdrawal of SOFA status for reasons outlined in USFK Reg 700-19, Section II, paragraph 6 shall not serve as a basis for the contractor filing any claims against the U.S. or USFK. Under no circumstance shall the withdrawal of SOFA Status or privileges be considered or construed as a breach of contract by the U.S. Government.

(m) Support.

(1) Unless the terms and conditions of this contract place the responsibility with another party, the COMUSK will develop a security plan to provide protection, through military means, of Contractor personnel engaged in the theater of operations when sufficient or legitimate civilian authority does not exist.

(2)(i) All Contractor personnel engaged in the theater of operations are authorized resuscitative care, stabilization, hospitalization at level III military treatment facilities, and assistance with patient movement in emergencies where loss of life, limb, or eyesight could occur. Hospitalization will be limited to stabilization and short-term medical treatment with an emphasis on return to duty or placement in the patient movement system.

(ii) When the Government provides medical or emergency dental treatment or transportation of Contractor personnel to a selected civilian facility, the Contractor shall ensure that the Government is reimbursed for any costs associated with such treatment or transportation.

(iii) Medical or dental care beyond this standard is not authorized unless specified elsewhere in this contract.

(3) Unless specified elsewhere in this contract, the Contractor is responsible for all other support required for its personnel engaged in the theater of operations under this contract.

(n) Compliance with laws and regulations. The Contractor shall comply with, and shall ensure that its personnel supporting U.S Armed Forces in the Republic of Korea as specified in paragraph (b)(1) of this clause are familiar with and comply with, all applicable—

SOFA Contract Clause

- (1) United States, host country, and third country national laws;
- (2) Treaties and international agreements;
- (3) United States regulations, directives, instructions, policies, and procedures; and
- (4) Orders, directives, and instructions issued by the COMUSK relating to force protection, security, health, safety, or relations and interaction with local nationals. Included in this list are force protection advisories, health advisories, area (i.e. "off-limits"), prostitution and human trafficking and curfew restrictions.
- (o) Vehicle or equipment licenses. IAW USFK Regulation 190-1, Contractor personnel shall possess the required licenses to operate all vehicles or equipment necessary to perform the contract in the theater of operations. All contractor employees/dependents must have either a Korean driver's license or a valid international driver's license to legally drive on Korean roads, and must have a USFK driver's license to legally drive on USFK installations. Contractor employees/dependents will first obtain a Korean driver's license or a valid international driver's license then obtain a USFK driver's license.
- (p) Evacuation.
 - (1) If the COMUSK orders a non-mandatory or mandatory evacuation of some or all personnel, the Government will provide assistance, to the extent available, to United States and third country national contractor personnel.
 - (2) Non-combatant Evacuation Operations (NEO).
 - (i) The contractor shall designate a representative to provide contractor personnel and dependents information to the servicing NEO warden as required by direction of the Responsible Officer.
 - (ii) If contract period of performance in the Republic of Korea is greater than six months, non emergency essential contractor personnel and all IC/TR dependents shall participate in at least one USFK sponsored NEO exercise per year.
- (q) Next of kin notification and personnel recovery.
 - (1) The Contractor shall be responsible for notification of the employee-designated next of kin in the event an employee dies, requires evacuation due to an injury, or is missing, captured, or abducted.
 - (2) In the case of missing, captured, or abducted contractor personnel, the Government will assist in personnel recovery actions in accordance with DOD Directive 2310.2, Personnel Recovery.
 - (3) IC/TR personnel shall accomplish Personnel Recovery/Survival, Evasion, Resistance and Escape (PR/SERE) training in accordance with USFK Reg 525-40, Personnel Recovery
