SECTION E - GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS TO OFFERORS

Prior to submission, the vendor/quoter shall review this RFQ in its entirety to fully understand the nature of the work and the conditions under which the work is to be performed. In no case shall failure to inspect the solicitation/RFQ and its accompanying attachments constitute grounds for a claim after delivery order award.

Offeror shall explicitly and completely identify any and all exceptions taken to the requirements of this specification. Drawings, literature, and any other information submitted with an offer do not constitute a stated or implied technical exception unless specifically identified in writing as an technical exception and accepted and implemented by an amendment to the solicitation or modification to a contract. Any exception deemed acceptable by the Government shall only apply to the specific item, requirement cited, and shall not extend to any other requirement.

Vendor offering other than brand name items identified below, when an “or equal” may be acceptable, shall furnish with their offers all technical data information, product descriptions, etc. to ensure that a determination may be made as to the equality of the product(s) offered (see clause titled Brand “Name or Equal” set forth in Section 52.211-6 of the Federal Acquisition Regulations.)

For Vendor supporting comments for items exceeding or not complying with specifications/requirements listed above. Vendors shall list all technical exceptions on Attachment 3 – Technical Exceptions Worksheet or Attachment 4 – Brand Name or Equal Worksheet, please include these worksheets with the quote submission.

Vendors are required to complete the GSA Source of Supply Letter (RFQ Attachment 7) if the vendor is not the manufacturer of the products being offered, the vendor may only offer products it is authorized to distribute, either by the manufacturer itself, or as otherwise authorized pursuant to wholesaler agreements or other policies establishing the vendor's authority to distribute offered products.

SPECIAL NOTES: To maintain the integrity of this request for quotes and subsequent award, all quoters are advised that any requests must be submitted in written form via e-mail to the Contracting Officer (CO) Mr. Mark F. Brown (email: mark.f.brown@gsa.gov).

All communications regarding this solicitation shall be issued to the Contracting Officer in writing. (CO) Mr. Mark Brown (email: mark.f.brown@gsa.gov).

CONTRACTOR'S SIGNATURE:

IAW FAR Part 4, contractual documents (e.g. bids, proposals, awards, modifications, etc.) shall be completed and signed by the Contractor as follows:

- (a) Individuals. Signed by the individual.
- (b) Individual doing business as a firm. Signed by that individual, and the signature shall be followed by the individual's typed, stamped, or printed name and the words, "an individual doing business as (insert name of firm)".
- (c) Partnership. Signed in the partnership name. Prior to award, provide a list of all partners and designate which partners have authority to bind the partnership.
- (d) Corporations. Signed in the corporate name followed by the word "by" and the signature, and title of the person authorized to sign. Prior to award, provide a list of individuals who have authority to bind the corporation.
- (e) Joint Ventures. Signed by each participant in the joint venture in the manner prescribed in (a) through (d) above.
- (f) Agents. When an agent is to sign the contract, other than as stated in paragraph (a) through (e) above, the agent's authorization to bind the principal must be established by evidence satisfactory to the Contracting Officer.

QUOTE PREPARATION AND SUBMISSION INSTRUCTIONS:

1. QUOTE PREPARATION INSTRUCTIONS

a. These instructions prescribe the format of quotes and the development and presentation of the quote's data. These instructions are designed to ensure the proper submission of information necessary to provide for comprehensive evaluation of quotes. Vendors/Quoters shall carefully review this section prior to commencing quote preparation and take the necessary measures to ensure that the information submitted is factual, accurate, and complete.

b. In order for a quote to be considered, Vendors/Quoters must strictly comply with all instructions outlined in this solicitation. Failure to furnish quotes that comply with the instructions, at the predetermined due date for submission, may result in elimination from consideration for award. Furthermore, all solicitation amendments (if any) must be acknowledged IAW with FAR Clause 52.212-1 – Instructions to Offerors – Commercial Items.

2. SUBMISSION INSTRUCTIONS

One electronic copy of all sections of the quote (Technical and Price Volumes) shall be emailed to the CO Mark F. Brown at email: mark.f.brown@gsa.gov on or before the due date of this RFQ. Faxed quotes are NOT permitted under any circumstances.

3. QUOTE DUE DATE SCHEDULE

The Due Date Set For This RFQ Is Thursday 4/2/2026 @ 3:00 PM (eastern)

4. QUOTE FORMAT (required for each item offered)

4a. TECHNICAL EVALUATION

Quoters must demonstrate how their items and specifications meet or exceed the Government's requirements listed in Section C of this RFQ. Quoters will be evaluated on how well their items satisfy the Government's specifications/requirements based upon the following evaluation criteria.

(1) Technical Compliance with technical specification in the Purchase Description.

(2) Special features of the commercial item that is above and beyond the technical specifications listed in the Purchase Description (See Attachment 2).

(3) Warranty considerations.

(4) Past performance. (Contractors must provide a demonstrated record of acceptable past performance on similar scope projects.)

(5) Delivery terms.

These evaluation factors other than price when combined are significantly more important than price.

Preference may be given to quoters which exceed the Government's specifications.

The Government will award an order resulting from this solicitation to the responsible vendor whose quote, conforming to the solicitation, represents the best value and will be most advantageous to the Government, price and other factors considered.

The data submitted with each quote should be complete and concise, but not overly elaborate. Excessive reliance on promotional brochures is discouraged.

4b. Volume 1 contains one section, Technical Response (including Past Performance):
PAGE LIMIT: Forty (40) PAGES. Only the first 40 pages of a vendors quote will be evaluated.

Volume 1 – Technical Section – General Instructions: The Technical volume should include necessary information regarding the Vendor/Quoter's ability to meet all requirements outlined in the solicitation. Failure to provide a Technical section in accordance with the solicitation instructions may render a quote incomplete or deficient, and ineligible for award.

i) Technical sections SHALL NOT include price or pricing information.

ii) In no case shall statements such as “we comply with the requirements of the contract/solicitation” or its equivalent be acceptable to meeting the requirements of this RFQ. The Quoter should not simply rephrase or restate the Government's requirements, but shall provide specific information as to how the items they are quoting meet or exceed the Government's requirements.

To that end, the quote shall also include sufficient detail of supporting information that clearly and concisely substantiates the validity of stated claims/capabilities. The Government may consider the Quoter's assertions or merely restating or paraphrasing the Governments requirements without further explanation, clarification, or context to be weaknesses, deficiencies, or, if such content is substantial, it may warrant a quote evaluation of “Unacceptable.”

iii) Technical Specifications (B.3) shall be provided for each item listed in the Purchase Description. Any response of substitution to the governments requirements shall be supported by additional comments/information using Attachments 4 – Brand name or Equal worksheets.

iv) The following shall be provided with the offer.

- 1) Offerors shall provide detailed explanation any Technical Exception, listed in Attachment 3 Technical Exception Worksheet, of any exceptions to the specification, including alternate equipment proposed or a declaration of comprehensive understanding of the requirements with no exceptions taken.
- 2) The offeror shall submit with the offer, preliminary drawings that show the following:
- 3) Layout views of the proposed trailer including all equipment locations and basic dimensions verifying compliance with ALL the requirements herein.
- 4) Exterior front, rear, and side view with overall dimensions.
- 5) Estimated curb weight and Gross Trailer Weight Rating (GVWR).
- 6) Documented evidence of quality assurance procedures or system.
- 7) Offeror shall provide access to the government, customers and warranty service, as well as technical support via email, phone service, internet/web, or other method. Offeror shall provide detailed information describing their customer and warranty service access.

4c. Volume 2 – Pricing Section – General Instructions: Vendors must complete Section B Price/Cost Schedule. If a separate sheet is required to submit pricing, besides the Price/Cost/Delivery charts in Section B, the additional pricing is limited to 2 pages.

Quoter shall submit a signed SF 18, that includes a completed Section B Price/Cost Schedule, all signed amendments or acknowledgements thereof, representation of small business status under the chosen NAICS, and the GSA Source of Supply Letter as a part of the Volume 2 Pricing submission.

The price stated in the PRICE/COST SCHEDULE (B.2) is to be inclusive of all necessary items and services required to furnish the quoted items to the Government. The Government will not pay any cost incurred in preparation and submission of this quote.

The Quoter's price will be evaluated by the CO to determine reasonableness. A reasonable price represents an amount that a prudent person would pay in a competitive business environment.

4d. Electronic Copy: Provide one (1) electronic copy of each volume (Volumes 1 and 2) via email. Electronic copies that are to be submitted must be in Microsoft Word or Adobe Acrobat format, and virus checked prior to submission.

4e. Indexing: Each volume will contain a "Table of Contents" (TOC) for that volume. The TOC will identify major areas, paragraphs, and subparagraphs by number and title as well as by page number and volume locations. Tab indexing will be used to identify sections as appropriate. TOC and tab indexes do not count towards page limitation.

4f. Quoters may, at the discretion of the Government, be asked to provide information for clarification purposes regarding their quotes. Requests for clarification information do not constitute discussions.

4g. The Quoter shall be held responsible for the validity of all information supplied in his/her quote, including information provided by potential subcontractors. Should subsequent investigation disclose that the fact and conditions were not as stated, the quote may be rejected and receive no further consideration.

4h. If revised quotes are requested, the number of revised copies to be submitted shall be the same as those of initial quotes, unless specified otherwise by the CO.

NOTE: Quoters who fail to submit required documentation may be considered ineligible for award.
