

Technical Specifications
Digital Multimeter
DLA Product Test Center, VT

I. The contractor shall provide all labor, materials, tools, transportation, supplies, supervision, etc. (except as noted), necessary to provide all components for a digital multimeter to the Defense Supply Center Columbus (DSCC), Columbus, Ohio. The salient characteristics of the digital multimeter are as listed below:

A. Keysight, quantity two (3) of 3458A digital multimeter Brand Name with the following salient characteristics:

1. Shall be new, not refurbished.
2. Shall be supplied with Operating manual.
3. Shall have; at least 8.5 digit precision.
4. Shall at a minimum have: Accuracy of at least 8ppm
5. Shall at a minimum have: Measurability to 1kV, 1GΩ, 1.5A peak, 2MHz
6. Shall be able to measure 2-wire and 4-wire Ohm resistance, AC voltage and current, DC voltage and current, frequency, period
7. Shall have to use front-unit input terminals and rear-unit input terminals
8. Shall have: NIST Traceable Calibration Certificate and ISO 17025 accredited calibration certificate with data and uncertainties.
9. Must be a drop-in replacement of current digital multimeter that works with custom software created by EPTC.
10. Shall at a minimum have: Included Accessories: Power cord.

B. Required Upgrades and Accessories - Brand Name:

1. GPIB Interface.

C. Place of Performance

The instrument shall be delivered to:
Defense Supply Center Columbus
300 North James Road, Bldg 17-3
Mark for: DLA Product Test Center, Bldg 11-7 (TE Lab)
Attn: Kyle Palmer (kyle.palmer@dla.mil / 614-693-5055)
Columbus, Ohio 43213

D. Travel (if applicable)

N/A

E. Invoicing

Payment of invoices will be accomplished by payment through the Defense Finance and Accounting Service. Invoices will be submitted to the Wide Area Workflow (WAWF) system in accordance with DFARS 252.232-7003 Electronic Submission of Payment Requests and Receiving Reports and DFARS 252.232-7006 Wide Area Workflow Payment Instructions within 10 workdays after the conclusion of each training session.

F. WAWF Acceptance DODAAC#

1. TA Lab is SL0700.

Technical Specifications
Digital Multimeter
DLA Product Test Center, VT

G. Other Requirements:

1. Delivery: 30 days from date of the award.
2. Contractor shall give notification to Kyle Palmer (kyle.palmer@dla.mil 614-693-5055) when the instrument is ready to be delivered.
3. All shipping costs are to be included in the contracted price.
4. The instrument shall be delivered to:
Defense Supply Center Columbus
300 North James Road, Bldg 17-3
Mark for: DLA Product Test Center, Bldg 11-7 (TE Lab)
Attn: Kyle Palmer (kyle.palmer@dla.mil 614-693-5055)
Columbus, Ohio 43213
5. Invoices shall be submitted through Wide Area Workflow (WAWF), See DFARS Clause 252.232-7006 Wide Area Workflow Payment Instructions for detailed instructions on how to submit invoices.

H. Points of Contact

The Government Contract Officer:
TBD

The Government Contract Officer Representative (COR):
Kyle Palmer
Kyle.palmer@dla.mil
(614) 692-8860

DLA Land & Maritime Product Test Center,
3990 E. Broad St., Columbus OH, Bldg. 11, Section 7
Larry Baas (614) 693-7591

The Government Technical Representative
Name: Kyle Palmer
Phone #: (614) 693-5055
Email: kyle.palmer@dla.mil