

NUMBER	QUESTION	ANSWER	RESPONSIBILITY
1	Currently we have the 20-meter cable set listed in the quote, can you confirm if this is correct?	20-meter cable is correct. See CLIN 0002 in the combined synopsis solicitation for reference.	Customer
2	The listed server in CLIN0004 is the brand name referring to the weather radar server of a Japanese Weather Radar Manufacturer. o Could you please provide additional information on the server requirements and software functionality? o Or is the intent in this listing to limit the sources / systems which may be proposed and only systems a WRServer1 will be considered?	There is no intent to limit the sources/systems proposed in this listing. Software/server shall be able to produce/store data in accessible file formats similar to NEXRAD Level-II or netCDF. System shall be able to allow changes to scanning strategies, such as different volume coverage patterns.	Customer
3	To satisfy this requirement, the system only needs to operate within the storage space and power provided by the USNA. Is that correct?	Correct, the system only needs to operate within the storage space and power provided by the USNA	Customer
4	Could you please provide a list of any additional supplies, software and systems currently owned by the USNA which will be provided and considered when evaluating the proposed system's ability to be operated and maintained?	Network support will be provided by USNA.	Customer
5	Could you please provide the USNA IT specifications mentioned?	Anything that connects to USNA network shall be compatible with the US Navy IT Protocols. Computers accessing the network require SafeConnect (a network access and compliance tool) to authenticate. The USNA IT Department can be reached at syshelp@usna.edu or at 410-293-3500 for further specifications regarding network IT protocols.	Customer
6	How will the agency verify the offeror is a small business and performing the majority of the effort vs. simply selling a larger foreign company's product and services?	Per the solicitation, this requirement is not set aside for small business. Contracting department will verify contractor business size by using the SBA small business search.	Contracting

