IV. COMMERCIAL QUESTIONS:

1. Do you consider this item commercial per FAR 2.101(b)? ☐ Yes ☐ No

2. The Government, and the Government only, must determine not only if an item is commercial but also if the commercial prices are Fair and Reasonable. This is usually accomplished through proof that commercial market forces have driven the setting of the commercial price. Such proof would describe the commercial market acceptance of the price or, more plainly, invoices proving that the item has been sold commercially at like prices, for like quantities.

a. Is your company willing and able to provide such proof, if the government determines it is needed to verify price reasonableness: ☐ Yes ☐ No

b. If yes, are these items Published Catalogs/Price Listed? ☐ Yes ☐ No

Please indicate how we can obtain a copy of this published price list: _____

c. If No, are these items modified items of a type available in the commercial marketplace (Meaning these items do not have to be identical, but are closely related)? ☐ Yes ☐ No

d. If yes, can you provide:

i. UN-REDACTED commercial sales history which is the Governments preferred documentation; ☐ Yes ☐ No

ii. Submit a Complete set of Drawings for this item for review, so that the Government can do an Independent Government Cost Estimate (IGCE); ☐ Yes ☐ No

Please Note: Your Un-Redacted Invoices and/or your Drawings can be marked "Proprietary and Confidential" as we will only use them for determination for Price reasonableness. They will also be Source Selection Information per FAR 2.101 and 3.104 and will only be used for the Solicitation which will be the result of this Market Research and will not be published or made public. Listing in catalogs or brochures; ☐ Yes ☐ No

iv. Known established price list to commercial market place; ☐ Yes ☐ No

v. Availability or announcement to the general public; ☐ Yes ☐ No

NOTE: Without proof of commerciality the solicitation will not be processed using commercial procedures (FAR Part 12) but will rather be processed using non-commercial procurement procedures (FAR Part 15).
