Notice of Intent to Sole Source WMATA SmartBenefits

Proposed Action:

The Government intends to negotiate, on a sole source basis, a time-and-materials acquisition with the Washington Metropolitan Area Transit Authority (WMATA) for WMATA SmartBenefits. This non-competitive acquisition is being issued by the Acquisition Services Directorate on behalf of the U.S. Access Board.

Place of Performance:

Washington D.C. and the surrounding areas.

Description of Requirement:

This is a presolicitation notice in accordance with RFO 5.101. The Contracting Officer anticipates issuing a purchase order WMATA SmartBenefits for commuter transportation services in Washington D.C. and surrounding areas. The Contracting Officer anticipates soliciting this requirement directly with WMATA in accordance with RFO 12.201-1 (2), and anticipates issuing an award on or about June 1, 2026.

Interested Parties:

Interested parties must provide evidence they are authorized to provide WMATA services.
