52	13	i. Solicitation Submittal Requirements	7	The definition of recency for the contractor’s experience requires projects to be completed within the past 10 years. We would recommend that the Government expands this requirement to allow for projects that are currently in progress and greater than 75% complete to enable offerors to better exhibit experience with similar, relevant projects.	Bid per RFP.
53	11	FACTOR 1 - Management Approach, (i) (1)	1	In order to provide the Government with a comprehensive and succinct response to the solicitation requirements, we request that the Government expands the Management Approach from five (5) pages to ten (10) pages.	Bid per RFP.

				Design experience. Please confirm that Offerors are to provide this information for Construction projects only. Typically such subcontracting information is only requested for the Construction Experience portion of the Factor (not Design) since the Construction Experience represents the Offeror responsible for the management of the subcontracting program/plan.
73		Small Business Subcontracting Plan		The U.S. Small Business Administration (SBA) amended its regulations so prime contractors will receive credit towards its subcontracting plan goals for awards made to small business concerns at any tier under the contract, to the extent reported under the subcontracting plan of a lower tier other than small subcontractor (Federal Register Citation: 81 FR 94246). Please confirm that for this contract, prime contractors will receive credit towards subcontracting plan goals for lower tier subcontracts in accordance with this rule.	Confirmed, Bid per RFP.

83	Amendment No. 1 page 18	Factor 5 – Small Business Participation and Utilization	(i) Solicitation Submittal Requirements	Please reference the Factor 5 requirements described in the solicitation and Amendment No. 1. The paragraph referenced states: "The Offeror is required to demonstrate its previous commitment to SBs through its record of past utilization of SBs and the level of commitment to small business if awarded a contract under this solicitation." How can small businesses compete for this supposed small business reserve? Please advise.	Bid per RFP ceased due to the reasons above, that the Government will treat this as a differing site condition.
