

Request for Information
Notice JA Legal Writer
Trainer

1. Administrative and Procuring Contracting Officer
Air Force District Washington (AFDW) Contracting Directorate (PK) Headquarters Air Force(HAF)- Enterprise Support Division (PKH), DoDAAC: FA7014

2. Introduction:

This is a Request for Information which is being released to industry for information gathering and planning purposes only pursuant to FAR Part 10 Market Research. This RFI is not a solicitation, nor shall this RFI constitute a Request for Proposal (RFP), Invitation for Bid (IFB), or Request for Quote (RFQ). The Government shall not award any contract solely based on this RFI nor shall the Government reimburse any Contractor for any associated costs they incur to submit a Capability Package to the Government in response to this RFI. This market research notice is being deployed to bring forth qualified, capable sources and in no way shall we restrict the Government's final acquisition strategy, planning, or requirements refinement.

3. NAICS CODE

The North American Industrial Classification System (NAICS) Code for this SSN is 541110, Offices of Lawyers.

4. Background and Description of Government Requirements

The Air Force Appellate Defense Division (FOA/JAJA) represents Airmen and Guardians on appeal following conviction at court-martial has a requirement to provide personnel who can provide a two-to-three-day in-person training course to two-to-eight personnel instructing on strategic and written appellate advocacy skills relevant to criminal cases two times a year.

5. Capability and Experience:

- A. Do you have experience in Legal Writing training:
 - 1) Must have credential as a Juris Doctorate from an accredited law school?
 - 2) Experience as a legal writing trainer dealing with substantial, high-quality legal practice experience in reviewing appellate records and written appellate advocacy, If so, how many years of experience do you have.
 - 3) Must have experience in appellate advocacy in criminal cases as well as prior teaching skills in written appellate advocacy
 - 4) Demonstrated the ability to teach legal writing, mentor, and provide constructive feedback on appellate strategy, development of appellate issues from

6. Additional Information for Capability Assessment

Request for Information
Notice JA Legal Writer
Trainer

As part of the Capability Packages submitted in response to this SSN, all Respondents must fully address the Government's requested Related Procurement and Contracting Data expressed below which will help during other pre-award activities in the future.

- i. Company Name (Full name and D.B.A, if applicable)
- ii. Company Address.
- iii. Point of contact first and last name, email, and telephone number.
- iv. Small Business and applicable socioeconomic categories (VOSB, 8a, HUBzone, SDB, WOSB, etc.)
- v. Is your company apart of either GSA, FSS MACs, ESI IDIQ and any Blanket Purchase Agreements.
- vi. Can you provide three recent performance samples within the last three years.

7. MANDATORY CAPABILITY PACKAGE INSTRUCTIONS, FORMATTING & DEADLINE

Capability Packages must be submitted to the Government:

- a. Within the confines of 8 total pages;
- b. Electronically via one (1) email before the established SSN deadline;
- c. In Adobe Portable Document Format (.pdf) format only;
- d. In a digital file size that does NOT exceed 5MB;
- e. Containing UNCLASSIFIED data/information/content only;

*Note: Capability Packages a submitted to the Government in response to this SSN SHALL NOT and MUST NOT contain any Controlled Unclassified Information (CUI), Classified, Secret, or Top-Secret data/information/contents.

- f. And received it at the identified Government office on or before 17:00 PM (Eastern Time Zone) on Thursday, 16May 2026; and
- g. Air Force Contracting Office electronically via to Mr. Winston ALLEN, AFDW/PKH Contract Specialist at winston.allen.1@us.af.mil and Contracting Officer MSgt IRINIETA ABUYAQONA at irinieta.tabuyaqona.1@us.af.mil