

Performance Work Statement
Naval Special Warfare Center
Fitness Equipment Maintenance & Repair

1.0 BACKGROUND

1.1 The Naval Special Warfare Center utilizes several different makes and models of fitness equipment for physical training and rehabilitation. This equipment includes different makes of treadmills, exercise bikes, rowers, elliptical and other fitness equipment at multiple buildings within NSW Coronado. This equipment requires periodic maintenance and service that is beyond the ability of personnel at NSWCEN. As such, NSWCEN requires a maintenance contract to perform maintenance and repair of this equipment.

2.0 OBJECTIVES

2.1 Establish a five-year Indefinite Delivery Indefinite Quantity (IDIQ) contract for maintenance and repair of fitness equipment.

3.0 SCOPE

3.1 The contractor shall provide all personnel, tools, parts, supervision and other items necessary to perform preventative maintenance and repairs to include inspecting and testing of the equipment and service according to the Original Equipment Manufacturers recommendations. This service is required quarterly and includes lubricating, calibrating, adjusting, internal cleaning and repairs as required, to include upholstery repairs as necessary. Additionally, the Government requires the contractor to provide service calls when repairs cannot wait until the next scheduled quarterly maintenance visit. Task orders for quarterly preventative maintenance will be issued annually. Any additional repairs and service calls will be issued via individual task orders.

4.0 REQUIREMENTS

4.1 Quarterly Maintenance - The Contractor shall provide quarterly maintenance and troubleshooting services on equipment listed in Attachment 2 Price & Equipment List. Maintenance and repair of equipment shall meet the manufacturer's recommendations. Contractor/personnel shall be qualified/certified service providers as applicable for all equipment. These services shall include but are not limited to:

4.1.1 Inspection, cleaning and lubrication of equipment

4.1.2 Calibrate equipment when required

4.1.3 Troubleshooting of malfunctioning treadmills making recommendation of parts to purchase to facilitate repairs (which shall be added via separate Task Order).

4.1.4 Service report of all work performed and suggested repairs which are outside the scope of the quarterly maintenance.

4.2 Service Calls - The Contractor may be required to perform Service Calls when maintenance is required between quarterly maintenance visits. These calls shall last no longer than 4 hours and shall be authorized via individual task orders. The Contractor shall not perform services not included within a properly executed task order.

4.2.1 Any service calls that require more than 4 hours shall be submitted to the Contracting Officer prior to work being performed to be negotiated under a separate modification.

4.3 Over and Above Repairs - Repairs which are outside the scope of the quarterly maintenance or service calls shall be negotiated at the task order level and issued via individual task order.

4.4 As equipment is phased out and new equipment is purchased, Attachment 2 Price & Equipment List will be revised as necessary via bi-lateral contract modification.
