

1. Are the Welding Machines to be mounted on the trailers?
  - a. Yes, as well as any additional accessories & cable reels required for welding.
  - b. Mounting can be completed by customer at delivery location as long as all required hardware is included. – Welding machine does is not required to be on trailer during shipping.
2. Does the trailer have to be enclosed or flat bed?
  - a. Flatbed. – Trailer should be a comparable to Miller Big Blue 400 Kubota ArcReach® Pre-Assembled Trailer Package – See picture below – <https://www.millerwelds.com/equipment/welders/engine-driven/big-blue-400-pro-engine-driven-welder-m00491#!/?product-options-title=big-blue-400-pro-kubota-arcreach-pre-assembled-trailer-package-951744>

3. What are the dimensions of the trailers?
  - a. Unknown... Trailer dimensions need to match the welder. Trailer is intended to transport welding machine and required accessories around construction site.
4. Timeline for when this would have to be completed.
  - a. Timeline is based off typical contract award requirements.
5. And any other important details which would be helpful to provide quote.
  - a. US size ball hitch 1-7/8" preferred / EU size ball hitch 50mm acceptable. Pintle hitch not-preferred.
  - b. Safety chains required
  - c. Fenders required
  - d. 4+ tie down points required (1 per corner)
  - e. Fire extinguisher mount required
  - f. 1+ landing gear required